Profiles of Mom's in the Bible

MY STORY

1. Tell us a bit about your Mom?
2. What is the weirdest gift you ever gave your Mom? Mom's, what is the strangest gift you have ever received?
3. What was your favorite Mom-made meal growing up?

QUICK REVIEW: What insight, principle or observation from this week's message did you find to be most helpful, eye-opening or troubling? Explain.

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Psalm 139 says we are fearfully and wonderfully made. Part Mom, part Dad, uniquely different is who we are. Think through Mom/child relationships in the Bible and jot down similarities and differences between child and Mom...
2. Read over the godly woman in Proverbs 31. What are the ideals listed there that we would change to fit 2017 vocabulary? What are the statements that sound strange/un-pc today? Why do some women struggle with this description?

3. Being a Mom is not always easy. Pr Phil mentioned a few difficult circumstances some bible Mom's dealt with. List other difficult situations and consider what lesson we can gather about God's view of Mom/motherhood?

4. On Sunday, we discussed some of our obligations to our Mom's (living or deceased). Jot down your thoughts on these, including scripture references:

Honor them

Pray for them

Provide for them

Support and Defend the family

We need to be thankful for our Mom's whether they were good or poor parents. God gave us to them and them to us. They were imperfect, just like you; and like you, would probably do some things over if they could. Take some time this week to thank God for your Mom!
